

Annex I :

The First Asia Pacific Chambers Congress & Fourth Meeting of

March 29th -30th, 2012

Kunshan, Jiangsu, China

March 29, 2012

- 10:30-12:00 Opening Ceremony
- Welcome Address
- Mr. Wan Jifei, Chairman, China Council for the Promotion of International Trade & China Chamber of International Commerce
 - Mr. Li Xueyong, Governor, Jiangsu Provincial Government
- Keynote Speech
- Official from Ministry of Commerce, P. R. C
 - Rona Yircali, Chair, World Chambers Federation
- 12:00-14:00 Lunch
- 14:00-15:00 Forum I: Economic Recovery and Trade Outlook
 in Asia Pacific region
- As the emerging market, business and trade development has been attracting global attention. Now as regional economic integration increasingly deepens, what changes will occur in Asian trade development trends? The forum will be attended by representatives from commercial chambers and business associations in the Asia Pacific region and provide the outlook on Asian trade.

Moderator

- Mustafa Mansur, Vice Chair, World Chambers Federation; Past President, Federation of Malaysian Manufacturers

Panelists:

- Ambassador Benedicto V. Yujuico, President of the Confederation of Asia Pacific Chambers of Commerce and Industry (CACCI)

- Chen Zhou, Director, Department of Asian Affairs, Ministry of Commerce, P. R. C

- Expert from China International Capital Corporation Ltd.

- Dai Hakozaki, Deputy Director General, Beijing Representative Office, Japan External Trade Organization

- Expert from Korea Chamber of Commerce and Industry

15:00-15:20

Coffee Break

15:20-15:50

Keynote speech

Economic Structure and Market Demand in the Yangtze River Delta Region

- Official from Department of Commerce, Jiangsu
Provincial Government

15:50-16:50 Forum II: The Impact of China's Import Expansion on Economies in the Asia Pacific Region

In the 19th Economic Leaders' Meeting of the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC), Mr. Hu Jintao, President of China, has pointed out that China will always attach equal importance to imports and exports, put equal emphasis on attracting foreign investment and investing abroad, accelerate the execution of 'Going Out' strategy, perfect regional opening-up layout, continuously expand new areas and room for opening up. China will create more just and transparent legal, policy and market environment, market, and promote development, reform and creativity through opening up to the outside world. What impact does China's import expansion policy have? The forum will invite trade experts to interpret China's import policy and analyze its far-reaching influence on the Asia Pacific region.

Moderator

- Rupert Sayer, CEO, Exporta Asia

Panelists

- Official from Department of Foreign Trade,
Ministry of Commerce, P. R. C

- Xu Sitao, Chief Representative, The Economist
Group China

- Stephen Cartwright, CEO, NSW Chamber of Commerce; Director, ICC Australia; Councillor, World Chambers Federation

- Expert from Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce and Industry

16:50-17:20 Closing Ceremony

- Dr. Zhang Wei, Vice Chairman, China Council for the Promotion of International Trade & China Chamber of International Commerce

March 30, 2012

09:00-12:00 Networking Meeting for Chinese and Foreign Chambers of Commerce